ociety at large and claims attention at ery gathering. The ladies in charge of the affair are its guaranty and any words as far as confidence in the carryig out of the arranged programme are cessary, as the following names atest: Mrs. Charles Howard Simpson in charge of the Players' Club, and Mrs. T. C. Monfat, Mrs. Walter Rinehart, Mrs. George Wise, Mrs. Joseph Speldel, Mrs. Morris Horkhelmer and Misses Agnes Wilson and Jennie Bailey, in control of the Poster Tableaux. This most fascinating feature of the benefit is given for the first time in this city, and will be very similar to an affair given recently by the Plastic Club, of Philadelphia, which proved such an artistic success that the congratulations for the club and requests for a repetition were so overwhelming that they had to be acceded to with a second triumphant outcome. A little of the Posters chosen for the Wheeling exhibition may be interesting reading, as the living representations later on, most surely will be. A fascinating novelty in the manner of entertaining occurred this week, the hostesses being Miss Sue Stifel, daughter of Mr. Louise F. Stifel, and Miss Nettle Reymann. A progressive party was the outcome of a chain of circumstances and the affair was delightfully charming. The first courses to enjoyment were served at the residence of Mr. Stifel on Sixteenth street, and the later ones at the home of Mr. Reymann on Fifteenth street.

The reception to the Married Ladies' Euchre Club yesterday afternoon at the suburban home of Mr. James Kelsey Hall, was the largest entertainment of the week. Mrs. Hall is an ideal hostess and everything pertaining to the regret came on adjournment, as it then became known that the last regular session of a delightful season had been had. The prize-takers in remembrance of this farewell meeting, were Mrs. A. F. Husted, Mrs. Charles Howard Simp-Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. Charles Frissell and Mrs. Jacob Grubb.

Miss Flora Stifel, only daughter of Mr. William F. Stifel, of North Main street, charmingly entertained a party of young ladies yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. H. Frank, of Twelfth street, presented her two young daughters, Misses Lillian and Pauline, to society esterday afternoon, between the hours of three and six o'clock.

The reception in behalf of the Home The reception in behalf of the Home for Aged and Friendless Women Thursday, was a complete success. The ladies in charge were Mesdames John Wagner, Ellen Caldwell, J. F. Paull, George K. Wheat, J. N. Vanee, W. H. Anderson, George Wise, F. H. Williams, A. J. Clarke, H. F. Jones, J. A. Bell, L. E. MUSICAL WHEELING.

The Woman's Club brilliantly ended ts third year Thursday evening and the musical season of 1897-'98 is closing The few opoprtunities yet to be enjoyed will be eagerly grasped. The Arion Society is preparing for its annual The Mozart Society is contemplating another open air concert, and the Oratorio Society is anxiously awaiting the evening of June 10, (as is Musical Wheeling) fully realizing that it will do Musical Wheeling as great credit as it has by its former excellent efforts "The Holy City" and Haydn's "Creation." The cratoria to be sung is "The Life of Man," by J. C. D. Parker, head of the Conservatory of Music, Boston, and gives splendid scope for work of the society. especially in the onening and especially in the opening and as beautiful in effect as any yet sung Mrs. Flora Willioms, this city's leading soprano; Mary Louise Clary, America's greatest contraito; Mr. Harry J. Fellows, well known tenor, and J. H. Dermitt, a recognized basso, will sing the solo parts of the score and also make up the programme for the earlier portion of the evening. Mrs. Williams' selection in the first part is "He was a lection in the first part is "He was a lection in the first part is "He was a' Prince," with full orchestral accompaniment. Miss Clary's magnificent voice, will be heard at its best in Granler's "Hosannos." Mr. Fellows' plece-deresistance is "The Holy City," and for the benefit of its many lovers in this city he may be requested to sing it. Mr. Dermitt will sing the old favorite, Schumann's "Two Grenadiers." It will be noted that the solo selections are the very choicest for each particular voice very choicest for each particular voice and a real treat is assured.

Another musical attraction out the Another musical attraction out the motor line is booked for next Thursday evening, at the Park Casino, when Miss Anna A. Jones, of Zanesville, Ohio, who created such a decided impression with her ballad singing at a charity concert here last winter, will again be heard. Miss Jones is one of the features in connection with the annual City Hospital benefit for which the greatest preparations are being made.

The park will be crowded this summer. The attractions are ahead of anything heretofore attempted by the park minagement.

of anything heretofore attempted by the park management.

Rev. J. A. Fullerton, D. D., a member of the West Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, came to the park last fall, seeking health and rest. He now looks much better than he has for years—looks at least ten years younger. Physically he is stronger than for years. He will be able to take charge of an appointment the next conference.

CHILD WRECKS.

Caused by Ignorant Selection of

One of the most Divine traits in man kind is the love for and care of the little folks. To furnish them good nour ishing food is to supply the wherewith to build the little bodies into healthy and sturdy men and women. Parents who thoughtlessly give coffee to grow ing children will see the day when the ing children will see the day when they would give anything on earth to be rid of the regret for the weakness and frequent sick spells of the children, caused by the alkaloids of coffee. Give the children Postum Food Coffee, the famous food drink, which goes directly to nourish and strengthen child or adult, and when in after days you glory in their strength and ability, you can remember with pride that your intelligence and care about the food and drink in their childhood made the sturdy men and women they are. It is dy men and women they are. It is criminal to be careless. It pays well to give children nourishing liquid food like

BUCEY'S ESCAPE

From Being Killed by an Insane Man Yesterday Afternoon - Orville Rarrett Fires Five Shots at the Base Ball Man

Fortunately he escaped by the proverbthe reader who learns the particular

Yesterday afternoon, shortly after 1 o'clock, Mr. Bucey was walking over the Main street stone bridge in company with Harry Prichard and Frack Ayres. Just as Orville Barrett, the Sixth ward junk dealer, was passing. Mr. Bucey saluted him pleasantly.

To the astonishment of the trio, Barrett instantly reached for his him pools. To the astonishment of the trio, Barrett instantly reached for his hip pocket and, bulling out a revolver, began to shoot at Bucey. The latter, being unarmed, lost no time in beating a hasty retreat, with Earrett in close pursuit. Before Bucey had secreted himself in the Arcade saloon, at the corner, of South street, Barrett had fired at him five times, and would have fired other shots, but for the fact that his revolver was full of emptiness—empty cartrifages.

Prichard and Ayres hurried to the police headquarters for an officer to agrees the would-be-murderer, but Officer Joe McCausland was attracted to the scene beforehand, and arrested Barrett, whose actions showed clearly that he was first arrested on a warrant charging insanity, and if it is shown after an examination to be made to-day by physicians, that he is not insane, he will be held on another warrant, already issued, charging shooting with intent to kill. From what can be learned of the man's conduct recently, he is insane. Bucey was barely acquainted with him and had not spoken to him a dozen times in as many years. Bucey was busy receiving the congectulations of his friends yesterday afternoon.
